In the Wake of the Game By GUS MALBERT

Still hanging on to second place, though more insecure to-day than at any previous time. They beat us in Portsmouth, as they have had a peculiar knack of doing throughout the season. At the same time Roanoke took a fall out of Potershurg. That's enough for him any previous time. They beat us in Portsmouth, as they have had a peculiar knack of doing throughout the season. At the same time Roanoke took a fail out of Petersburg. That's the particular reason why the Tigers are trailing at our heels, ready to take a full meal on Coit fiesh. As is usual, and has been usual, Harry Griffin pitched a good game, but the other fellows played better ball. As a sort of salve to our wounded feela sort of salve to our wounded feelings, the scribe in Portsmouth tells us that Ducky Eberts, a regular, and rank Dobson, a volunteer, played star baseball.

In response to our invitation that fans throughout the State send in suggestions for an all-star Virginia League team, to be pitted against a similar team from the Carolina Association, the following are selected as the first offering. The first is from an anonymous individual, and the sec-ond is from J. W. Blount, of Roanoke.

Team No. 1.

Pitchers—Barton, Newport News;
Brooks, Petersburg; Efird, Roanoke.
Catchers — Garvin, Portsmouth;
Laughlin, Petersburg.
First base—Pressly, Roanoke.
Second base—Davis, Richmond.
Third base Davis, Richmond.

Third base—Damrau, Petersburg.
Shortstop—Gray, Norfolk.
Left field—Smith, Newport News.
Right field—Laval, Richmond.
Centre field—Ginn, Roanoke. Team No. 2. Catchers—Welcher, Roanoke; Stewart, Norfolk. Pitchers-Brooks, Petersburg; Barton, Newport News; Efird, Roanoke

Now come on fellows; pick your teams. Send them in. One man's judgment is as good as anothers. Keep the ball rolling. There's plenty of room to print them. It's purely guess-work, this thing of picking all-star teams, and its intensely interesting to see just where the differences are. But sign your names to your selections and the secondary of the sign your names to your selections.

At a meeting last night of the amateur baseball commission it was doubte-header Thursday afternoon at Branch and Tylers have strong teams, their playing is thought to be inferior to the Grays, and the major champions should have little difficulty in defeating the class A organization.

It is not certain whether the amateur in the infant of the amateur baseball commission it was double-header Thursday afternoon at being the class the contest will begin at 4 o'clock. While both Kahns and Tylers have strong teams, their playing is thought to be inferior to the Grays, and the major champions should have little difficulty in defeating the class A organization.

We printed one anonymous communication to-day, but never again, and hands are up on that statement. But get busy. Plenty of good material to pick from, and Dr. Pressly, if he manages to successfully arrange the series, wants the judgment of as many fans as possible.

He has definitely arranged nothing Tommy Stauch, who is the Dr. Pressly of North Carolina, will wire Buck today, telling whether or not he can corrall a team good enough to beat the best the Virginia League can get together. But anyway, it's lots of fun, so all you fans, male and female, get to work and choose your favorites. If the games come off, and there is reason to believe that they will, you'll feel mighty good if you see your team in the field. Secretary Bradley, who talked to Dr. Pressly over the telephone to-day, told him that the local park could be secured. It's all really up to Tommy Stauch, right now. Just send in your selections to the sporting editor. He may laugh at it, but you laughed at his, so what's the odds. It'll look good in print.

News that Charlle Plez has left for his home in New Jersey, where he will be operated upon for appendicitis, will be received with sincere regrets. No ball player, in many years, has made more friends than Piez. He is a clever youngster, both personally and as a ball player, and the good wishes of every fan hereabouts, as well as throughout the circuit, will go Johnny McGraw will get him as soon as he gets well.

John Raley may get back into the game to-day. His back still pains him, but he is anxious to help out, and a pluckier individual than John Raley

If Jack Anthony can so arrange his business affairs he will join the Colts. He is badly needed. With Plez gone and Charlie Strain out of the game for the rest of the season, the out-
